

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ACT OF INCORPORATION.

No. 4706.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Be it known, That whereas WILLIAM LEVERETT CHASE, FRANK HARRISON BRIGGS, FRANCIS ELLINGWOOD ABBOT, WALTER GILMAN PAGE, HENRY DEXTER WARREN, ANDREW ROBESON, WINTHROP WETHERBEE, WILLIAM CURTIS CAPELL, ARTHUR HENRY DUTTON, GILBERT HODGES, THEODORE HAROLD CLAPP, CHARLES HOWARD BAILEY, JR., EBEN NORTON HORSFORD, and WALTER KENDALL WATKINS, have associated themselves with the intention of forming a corporation under the name of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the men who achieved American Independence; and furthering the proper celebration of the anniversaries of the birthday of Washington, and of prominent events connected with the War of the Revolution; collecting and securing for preservation the rolls and other documents relating to that period; inspiring the members of the Society with the patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and promoting the feeling of friendship among them, and have complied with the provisions of the Statutes of this Commonwealth in such case made and provided, as appears from the certificate of the President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Board of Managers of said corporation, duly approved by the Commissioner of Corporations, and recorded in this office:

Now Therefore, I, WILLIAM M. OLIN, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Do hereby Certify, that said WILLIAM LEVERETT CHASE, FRANK HARRISON BRIGGS, FRANCIS ELLINGWOOD ABBOT, WALTER GILMAN PAGE, HENRY DEXTER WARREN, ANDREW ROBESON, WINTHROP WETHERBEE, WILLIAM CURTIS CAPELL, ARTHUR HENRY DUTTON, GILBERT HODGES, THEODORE HAROLD CLAPP, CHARLES HOWARD BAILEY, JR., EBEN NORTON HORSFORD, and WALTER KENDALL WATKINS, their associates and successors, are legally organized and established as and are hereby made an existing corporation under the name of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with the powers, rights, and privileges, and subject to the limitations, duties, and restrictions which by law appertain thereto.

Witness my official signature hereunto subscribed, and the Seal of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts hereunto affixed this Ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety-One.

WILLIAM M. OLIN,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Constitution and By-Laws.

THE GENERAL SOCIETY OF SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

It being evident, from the steady decline of a proper celebration of the national holidays of the United States of America, that popular concern in the events and men of the War of the Revolution is gradually declining, and that such lack of interest is attributable, not so much to the lapse of time and the rapidly increasing flood of immigration from foreign countries, as to the neglect, on the part of descendants of Revolutionary heroes, to perform their duty in keeping before the public mind the memory of the services of their ancestors, and of the times in which they lived; therefore, the Society of the Sons of the Revolution has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of the men who, in the military, naval, and civil service of the Colonies and of the Continental Congress, by their acts or counsel achieved the independence of the country, and to further the proper celebration of the anniversaries of the birthday of Washington, and of prominent events connected with the War of the Revolution; to collect and secure for preservation the rolls, records, and other documents relating to that period; to inspire the members of the Society with the patriotic spirit of their forefathers; and to promote the feeling of friendship among them.

The General Society shall be divided into State Societies, which shall meet annually on the day appointed therefor in their respective By-Laws, and oftener if found expedient; and at such Annual Meeting the reasons for the institution of the Society shall be considered, and the best measures for carrying them into effect adopted.

The State Societies, at each Annual Meeting, shall choose, by a majority of the votes present, a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Registrar, a Treasurer, a Chaplain, and such other officers as may by them respectively be deemed necessary, together with a Board of Managers consisting of these officers and of nine other members, all of whom shall retain their respective positions until their successors are duly chosen.

Each State Society shall cause to be transmitted annually, or oftener, to the other State Societies, a circular-letter, calling attention to whatever may be thought worthy of observation respecting the welfare of the Society, or of the general union of the States, and giving information of the officers chosen for the year; and copies of these letters shall also be transmitted to the general secretary, to be preserved among the records of the General Society.

The State Societies shall regulate all matters respecting their own affairs, consistent with the general good of the Society; judge of the qualification of their members, or of those proposed for membership, subject, however, to the provisions of this constitution; and expel any member who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman or a man of honor, or by an opposition to the interests of the community in general, or the Society in particular, may render himself unworthy to continue in membership.

In order to form funds that may be respectable, each member shall contribute upon his admission to the Society, and annually thereafter, such sums as the By-Laws of the respective State Societies may require; but any of such State Societies may provide for the endowment of memberships by the payment of proper sums in capitalization, which sums shall be properly invested as a permanent fund, the income only of which shall be expended.

The regular meeting of the General Society shall be held every three years, and special meetings may be held upon the order of the general president, or upon the request of two of the State Societies; and such meetings shall consist of the general officers and a representation not exceeding five deputies from each State Society; and the necessary expenses of such meeting shall be borne by the State Societies.

At the regular meeting a general President, Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, and Chaplain shall be chosen by a majority of the votes present to serve until the next regular general meeting, or until their successors are duly chosen.

At each general meeting the circular-letters which have been transmitted by the several State Societies shall be considered, and all measures taken which shall conduce to the general welfare of the Society.

The General Society shall have power, at any meeting, to admit State Societies thereto, and to entertain and determine all questions affecting the qualification for membership in or the welfare of any State Society as may by proper memorial be presented by such State Society for consideration.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good character, and a descendant of one who, as a military, naval, or marine officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, in actual service, under the authority of any of the thirteen Colonies or States or of the Continental Congress, and remaining always loyal to such authority, or a descendant of one who signed the Declaration of Independence, or of one who, as a member of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of any of the Colonies or States, or as an official appointed by or under the authority of any such legislative bodies, actually assisted in the establishment of American Independence by services rendered during the War of the Revolution, becoming thereby liable to conviction of treason against the government of Great Britain, but remaining always loyal to the authority of the Colonies or States, shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

The Secretary of each State Society shall transmit to the General Secretary a list of the members thereof, together with the names and official designations of those from whom such members derive claim to membership; and thereafter, upon the admission of members in each State Society, the Secretary thereof shall transmit to the General Secretary information respecting such members similar to that herein required.

The Society shall have insignia, which shall be a badge suspended from a ribbon by a ring of gold; the badge to be elliptical in form, with scalloped edges, one and one-quarter inches in length, and one and one-eighth inches in width, the whole surmounted by a gold eagle, with wings displayed, inverted; on the obverse side a medallion of gold in the centre, elliptical in form, bearing on its face the figure of a soldier in Continental uniform with musket slung; beneath, the figures 1775; the medallion surrounded by thirteen raised gold stars of five points each upon a border of dark-blue enamel. On the reverse side, in the centre, a medallion corresponding in form to that on the obverse, and, also in gold, bearing on its face the Houdon portrait of Washington in bass-relief, encircled by the legend "Sons of the Revolution;" beneath, the figures 1883; and upon the reverse of the eagle the number of the badge to be engraved; the medallion to be surrounded by a plain gold border conforming in dimensions to the obverse; the ribbon shall be dark blue, ribbed and watered, edged with buff, one and one-half inches wide, and one and one-half inches in displayed length.

The insignia of the Society shall be worn by the members on all occasions when they assemble as such for any stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any occasions of ceremony; it shall be carried conspicuously on the left breast, but members who are or have been officers of the Society may wear the insignia suspended from the ribbon around the neck.

On occasions other than the meetings for any stated purpose or celebration, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern, which shall not exceed fifteen millimetres in diameter, in the upper button-hole of the left lapel of the coat.

The custodian of the insignia shall be the General Secretary, who shall issue them to members of the Society under such proper rules as may be formulated by the General Society, and he shall keep a register of such issues wherein each insignia issued may be identified by the number thereof.

The seal of the Society shall be one and seven-eighths inches in diameter, and shall consist of the figure of a Minuteman in Continental uniform, standing on a ladder leading to a belfry; in his left hand he holds a musket and an olive branch, whilst in his right grasps a bell-rope; above, the cracked Liberty Bell, issuing therefrom a ribbon bearing the motto of the Society, Exegi monumentum ære perennius; across the top of the ladder, on a ribbon, the figures 1776; and on the left of the Minuteman, and also on a ribbon, the figures 1883, the year of the formation of the Society; the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of one inch wide; thereon at the top thirteen stars of five points each; at the bottom the name of the General Society, or of the State Society to which the seal belongs.

Amendment adopted at the Meeting held in Trenton, N. J., 23 April, 1892.

The State Societies, at every Annual Meeting, shall choose a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Registrar, a Treasurer, a Chaplain, and such other officers as may by them respectively be deemed necessary, and a Board of Managers to consist of such officers, and other members, as may be provided by their respective Constitutions and By-Laws.

BY-LAWS OF THE
SONS OF THE REVOLUTION
IN THE
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

ARTICLE I.

NAME OF SOCIETY.

THE Society shall be known by the name, style, and title of "SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION," in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years shall be eligible to membership in the SONS OF THE REVOLUTION, who is descended from an ancestor, as the propositus, who, either as a military, naval, or marine officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, or official in the service of any one of the thirteen original Colonies or States, or of the National Government, representing or composed of those Colonies or States, assisted in establishing American Independence during the War of the Revolution, between the 19th day of April, 1775, when hostilities commenced, and the 19th day of April, 1783, when they were ordered to cease;

Provided, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the services of an ancestor in the "Minutemen" or "Militia," it must be satisfactorily shown that such ancestor was actually called into the service of the State or United States, and performed garrison or field duty; and

Provided further, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the service of an ancestor as a "sailor" or "marine," it must in like manner be shown that such service was other than shore duty and regularly performed in the Continental navy, or the navy of one of the original thirteen States, or on an armed vessel, other than a merchant ship, which sailed under letters of marque and reprisal, and that such ancestor of the applicant was duly enrolled in the ship's company, either as an officer, seaman, or otherwise than as a passenger; and

Provided further, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the service of an ancestor as an "official," such service must have been performed in the civil service of the United States, or of one of the thirteen original States, and must have been sufficiently important in character to have rendered the official specially liable to arrest and imprisonment, the same as a combatant, if captured by the enemy, as well as liable to conviction of treason against the Government of Great Britain.

Service in the ordinary duties of a civil office, the performance of which did not particularly and effectively aid the American cause, shall not constitute eligibility.

In the construction of this article, the Volunteer Aides-de-Camp of General Officers in Continental service, who were duly announced as such, and who actually served in the field during a campaign, shall be comprehended as having performed qualifying service.

The civil officials and military forces of the State of Vermont during the War of the Revolution, shall also be comprehended in the same manner as if they had belonged to one of the thirteen original States.

No service of an ancestor shall be deemed as qualifying service for membership in the Sons of the Revolution where such ancestor, after assisting in the cause of American Independence, shall have subsequently either adhered to the enemy, or failed to maintain an honorable record throughout the War of the Revolution.

ARTICLE III.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

No person shall be admitted to membership unless he shall have first made written application therefor, approved by two members over their signatures.

Members shall be elected as follows: Candidates shall send their respective applications and documents, or other proofs of qualification for membership, through the Secretary to the Board of Managers, which is authorized to judge of the merits of an application in such manner as it may deem best. Upon a favorable decision of said Board, and upon payment of the initiation fee and dues, applicants shall thereupon become members of the Society.

The President shall appoint a Committee on Admissions, consisting of five of the Board of Managers, of which the Secretary shall be a member ex officio, who shall investigate all applications for membership, and report thereon to each member of the Board by list, mailed at least five days previous to the meeting of said Board, which list shall be returned to the Secretary with the names checked by the members.

Any names not receiving the unanimous approval of the Board shall be acted upon at their meeting separately.

Three shall constitute a quorum of the Committee on Admissions.

ARTICLE IV.

INITIATION FEES, DUES, ETC.

The initiation fee shall be five (5) dollars; the annual dues five (5) dollars: provided, that any member who shall have been elected during the last three months of the fiscal year shall not be required to pay the annual dues for the current fiscal year. The payment at one time of fifty (50) dollars shall constitute a life membership. The payment at one time of one hundred (100) dollars shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying the membership shall be held by his eldest son, or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom he claims as he may nominate; in failure of such nomination having been made the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold the membership: provided always, that the Society reserves to itself the privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January and close on the thirty-first day of December in each calendar year.

Upon payment of initiation fee, one rosette shall be given to each new member without charge.

Any member of another State Society of the Sons of the Revolution, except a life or endowed member, who is transferred to this Society, shall be exempted from payment of initiation fee.

ARTICLE V.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

The Society shall hold an Annual Meeting on the 19th day of April, at which there shall be a general election of officers by ballot. If said date shall fall on Sunday, the meeting shall be held the following day. At such election a majority of the votes cast for each office shall determine a choice therefor. Special meetings shall be held by direction of the Board of Managers or upon the written request of ten members of the Society. At all meetings of the Society twelve members shall constitute a quorum.

After the annual meeting a dinner shall be served, the expense of which will be paid for from the funds of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, an Historian, a Chaplain, and a Board of Managers; consisting of the above-named officers, ex officio, and nine others.

ARTICLE VII.

PRESIDENT.

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, or, in his absence, a chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall execute the usual functions of a presiding officer, under general parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the Society, in proper cases under those rules. The President shall be, ex officio, a member of all committees other than the Committee on Nominations. He shall have power to convene the Board of Managers, and appoint the place of such meeting when called by him.

He shall also perform such other representative duties on behalf of the Society, either personally or by correspondence, as it or the Board of Managers may find desirable or necessary, or as customarily appertain to his office, and he shall enforce a strict observance of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society.

In case of his decease, resignation, neglect to serve, or inability from any cause to act as President, the duties of the office shall devolve on the Vice-President, until the vacancy caused by such decease, resignation, or neglect to serve shall be filled, or until the inability shall cease.

ARTICLE VIII.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all qualified and accepted candidates of their admission, and perform such other duties as the Society, or Board of Managers, or his office, may require of him. He shall have charge of the seal, By-Laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar and Historian, and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same without delay to the member for whom it is issued, or to his proper representative. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society, and in proper cases authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of all printing and publications directed by the Society or by the Board of Managers. He shall give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society or the Board of Managers, affecting them or appertaining to their respective duties; and at the Annual Meeting, and oftener, if required, shall report to the Society the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership, and also the names of those members whose resignations or voluntary withdrawals have been consented to and accepted, and also the names of those members who have been expelled, or dropped for non-payment of dues, or who have been received or dropped from the roll by transfer since the last report. In his absence from any meeting, a Secretary pro tempore may be designated therefor.

ARTICLE IX.TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or by the Board of Managers, and shall perform such other duties as the Society, or Board of Managers, or his office, may require of him. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each Annual Meeting render the same to the Society, with a full statement of the financial condition of the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts.

ARTICLE X.REGISTRAR.

The Registrar shall have possession of all documents pertaining to the descent of members of the Society. He shall also keep an accurate Register of Members of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.HISTORIAN.

The Historian shall keep a detailed record of all the historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society; and he shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, essays, papers, and other documents of an historical character, other than a Register of Members, as the Secretary may be required to publish; and at every Annual Meeting, if there shall be a necrological list for the year then closing, he shall submit the same, with carefully prepared biographies of the deceased members.

ARTICLE XII.

CHAPLAIN.

The Chaplain shall perform such duties as ordinarily appertain to such office.

ARTICLE XIII.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers shall judge of the qualifications of every candidate who shall make proper application for admission to the Society, and shall have power to admit him to membership therein, if found eligible under the Constitution of this Society. Two negative votes shall be a rejection of the applicant.

They may, through the Secretary, call special meetings of the Society at such times as they may see fit; and they may arrange for commemorative celebrations by the Society.

They shall recommend plans to the Society for promoting its purposes, and, when practicable, may digest and prepare business for its meetings, and shall supervise all publications issued in its name, and decide whether copies of records or other documents or papers may be furnished on request of any party in cases not pertaining directly to the business of the Society and the proper conduct of its affairs.

They shall generally superintend the interests, and shall have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society, but shall not expend at any one time a sum to exceed $500, without the consent of the Society. They shall also perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws or required by any standing rule or resolve of the Society; provided, however, that they shall at no time be required to take any action nor contract any debt for which they shall be jointly or severally liable. They shall be competent to consent to and accept the resignation or voluntary withdrawal from membership of any enrolled member of the Society.

They may require the attendance of any member of the Society, or any official or committee thereof, at any meeting, for consultation and advice.

The Board of Managers shall meet as often as they may desire, or at the call of the President, or upon the written request of any three members of the same addressed to the Secretary.

Five of the Board of Managers shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

At every annual meeting they shall submit to the Society a general report of their proceedings during the year then closing, and at such other time as may be required by the Society.

ARTICLE XIV.

EXPULSION OR SUSPENSION.

The Board of Managers shall have power to expel any enrolled member of this Society who, by a conduct inconsistent with a gentleman and a man of honor, or by an opposition to the interests of the community in general or of this Society in particular, may render himself unworthy to continue a member, or who shall persistently transgress, or, without good excuse, wilfully neglect or fail in the performance of any obligation enjoined by the Constitution or By-Laws or any standing rule of this Society; provided, that such member shall have received at least ten days' notice of the complaint preferred against him, and of the time and place for hearing the same, and have been thereby afforded an opportunity to be heard in person.

Whenever the cause of expulsion shall not have involved turpitude nor moral unworthiness, any member thus expelled may, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Managers, but not otherwise, be restored to membership by the Society at any meeting.

The Board of Managers shall also have power to drop from the roll the name of any enrolled member of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears in the payment of dues, and who, on notice to pay the same, shall fail and neglect to do so within ten days thereafter, and upon being thus dropped his membership shall cease and determine; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Board of Managers on his application therefor, and upon his payment of all such arrears and of the annual dues from the date when he was dropped to the date of his restoration. The Board of Managers may also suspend any officer from the performance of his duties for cause, which proceeding must be reported to the Society and acted upon by it within thirty days, either by rescission or removal of the suspended officer from office, or otherwise the suspension shall cease.

ARTICLE XV.

VACANCIES AND TERMS OF OFFICE.

Whenever an officer of this Society shall die, resign, or neglect to serve, or be suspended, or be unable properly to perform the duties of his office, by reason of absence, sickness, or other cause, and whenever an office shall be vacant, which the Society shall not have filled by an election, the Board of Managers shall have power to appoint a member to such office pro tempore, who shall act in such capacity until the Society shall elect a member to the vacant office, or until the inability due to "suspension, absence, sickness, or other cause" shall cease; provided, however, that the office of President or Secretary shall not thus be filled by the Board of Managers when there shall be a Vice-President or Assistant Secretary to enter upon the duties of those offices respectively.

In like manner, the Board of Managers may supply vacancies among its members under the same conditions and limitations; and in case any member thereof, other than an officer, shall be absent from three consecutive meetings of the same, his place therein may be declared vacant by the Board of Managers, and filled by an appointment which shall continue in full effect until the Society shall elect a successor.

Subject to these provisions, all officers of the Society, and the members of the Board of Managers, shall, from the time of their election or appointment, continue in their respective offices until the next Annual Meeting, and until their respective successors shall be duly chosen.

ARTICLE XVI.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

The President shall, at least sixty days prior to every Annual Meeting, appoint a committee of nine members from among those longest enrolled, who may consent to serve, exclusive of officers or members of the Board of Managers, and their report shall propose the names of candidates for the various offices.

ARTICLE XVII.

AMENDMENTS.

No amendment to these By-Laws shall be made, except upon the unanimous consent of a quorum of the Board of Managers, or of two-thirds of a quorum of the Society, present at a regularly called meeting.

Report of the Tablet Committee.

On October 24, 1891, at the first meeting of the Board of Managers, after the organization of the Massachusetts Society, the President, Colonel William L. Chase, spoke of what should be the aims and objects of the Society, referring in particular to the importance of marking historic sites with suitable tablets; and he announced that, in order that no time might be lost in beginning the work, a fund of $500 had been placed at the disposal of the Board of Managers, the sum to be expended under the direction of the Board for this specific purpose. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the donor of the fund, and a committee of three, to be known as the Tablet Committee, was appointed, whose duty should be to select sites of important events connected with our Revolutionary history, and to commemorate them with tablets descriptive of these events. The following-named were appointed by the President and approved by the Board: Walter Gilman Page, Chairman, Francis Ellingwood Abbot, and Walter Kendall Watkins.

The first site selected for commemoration was the "Green Dragon Tavern," which stood on Union street, not far from Hanover. Through the courtesy of the Lodge of St. Andrew, the present owners of the property, a suitable place for the reception of the tablet was provided in the front wall of a building, then in process of erection upon the site, as nearly as this can be determined, of the "Green Dragon Tavern."

Upon formal notification by the Committee, placing the tablet in the keeping of St. Andrew's Lodge, the following reply was received:

BOSTON, November 25, 1892.

DEAR SIR: In behalf of the Lodge of St. Andrew I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of September 3, informing the Lodge that the Sons of the Revolution have placed a bronze tablet to indicate the site of the Green Dragon Tavern of Revolutionary fame.

The members of our ancient Lodge firmly believe that, while there is any worth in genealogy or any virtue in patriotism, the locations where important Revolutionary events occurred should be hallowed in memory. For these reasons our Lodge fully appreciate the acts of your Association, and take pleasure in placing upon our records your courteous and patriotic action.

For the Lodge of St. Andrew,

WILLIAM F. DAVIS,
Secretary.

The picturesque and historic "Old Powder House," located in Somerville and hitherto unmarked by any inscription to tell the visitor its ancient history, now bears upon its north-erly side a bronze tablet, measuring thirty by forty-two inches.

The City of Somerville accepted the tablet, as the following official communications will show:

SOMERVILLE, November 25, 1892.

DEAR SIR: It affords me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of your esteemed favor of November 21 and to accept in behalf of the City of Somerville the bronze tablet recently placed upon the "Old Powder House" by a committee of the Sons of the Revolution.

I rejoice that this precious relic of the patriotic past has come into the possession of our city. It will be carefully preserved and cherished as a legacy of the brave men who founded the Republic after heroic deeds in defence of the principles of independence and transmitted to all time as a monument of patriotic service in the olden time.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM H. HODGKINS,
Mayor.

CITY OF SOMERVILLE,
IN BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN,

December 14, 1892.

Ordered, That the bronze memorial tablet recently placed upon the "Old Powder House," and presented to the City by the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the Revolution, by its letter of presentation received this day, be and hereby is accepted by the City Council for and in behalf of the City, with a hearty concurrence in the sentiment expressed by the Society in its letter of presentation, that "the tablet may serve to remind the present generation, and the generations which shall follow, of the patriotic deeds of our heroic forefathers." And it is further Ordered, That the City Clerk transmit to the said Society an attested copy of these orders.

A true copy of an order passed by the City Council, concurrently, December 14, and approved by the Mayor, December 16, 1892.

Attest :

GEORGE I. VINCENT,

City Clerk.

Although a patriotic people have erected a statue to the "Organizer of the Revolution," yet it seemed appropriate that the home of Samuel Adams should be marked with a tablet, and accordingly a bronze memorial was placed on the corner of Winter street and Winter place.

The work of the Committee was continued on the lines now mapped out by experience, and in December, 1893, the one hundred and twentieth anniversary of the destruction of the tea by the citizens of Boston, a large and handsome bronze tablet, measuring five feet by three feet, was placed on the corner of Pearl street and Atlantic avenue.

The tablet is ornamented with a bas-relief at the top, representing a ship of the year 1773, with figures dressed as Indians busily engaged in throwing overboard the obnoxious tea. At the sides of the tablet are bands of tea leaves, with miniature tea-chests interspersed.

The principal expense of this tablet was borne by the widow and daughters of Charles L. Faulkner, and a suitable vote of thanks was passed by the Society in acknowledgment of this patriotic and public-spirited act. All the above inscriptions were originally drafted by Francis Ellingwood Abbot, the Historian of the Society, and adopted by the Committee.

On February 19, 1894, the Committee asked for an appropriation of $400 as a nucleus for a fund to be expended for the purpose of placing the portrait of Washington in every public school building in Boston, the remainder of the necessary amount, some $1,100, being required to be raised by individual subscription among the members of the Society. This appropriation was granted, and, the members readily responding to a circular from the Committee, the School Board of the City was petitioned for the necessary permission to place the portraits upon the school-room walls, which was granted by the following order: "That the petition of the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the Revolution to place reproductions of Gilbert Stuart's portrait of George Washington, framed, in every public school in Boston, be granted; that the portraits be gratefully accepted, and the thanks of the Board be extended to said Society for their very generous offer and for their interest in our public schools."

On February 22, 1894, in the Old South Church, these portraits were presented to the children of Boston by Dr. Edward Everett Hale, in behalf of the Society.

Besides the special work of the Tablet Committee, it caused floral decorations to be placed in the Old Granary Burial Ground, in memory of John Hancock, October 8, 1893, the centenary of his death, and upon the statue of Colonel Prescott, June 17, and the statue of Washington, February 22.

The work of patriotic education carried on by the Committee, and representing the true objects of our Society, has invariably met with hearty support from the Board of Managers and the members of the Society, while the public has been quick to follow and to appreciate the course pursued. The Committee most earnestly wish that each individual member shall take a personal pride and ownership in all that your Committee represents, and that, as a body, we shall not only maintain the present high standard of action, but constantly strive to fulfil in every way possible the obligations we owe to our patriotic sires, by instilling a reverence for their memories and their high-minded deeds in the minds of all our citizens. Only through these efforts shall we be justly entitled to the claim of being true Sons of the Revolution.

GEORGE CHEYNE SHATTUCK, M.D.

GEORGE CHEYNE SHATTUCK was born in Boston, July 22, 1813. He was educated at a Grammar School and the Public Latin School in Boston, the Round Hill School at Northampton, Harvard College (1827-1831), and the Harvard Medical School (M.D., 1835). In the last-named institution he served as Professor of Clinical Medicine from 1855 to 1859, as Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine from 1859 to 1873, and for many of these years as Dean of the Medical Faculty. He was President of the Massachusetts Medical Society, 1872-1874, a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and a member of many other societies. Originally a Unitarian, he became an Episcopalian in early life, and devoted himself in many ways to the upbuilding of his adopted church. He was the founder of St. Paul's School in Concord, New Hampshire, and one of the founders of the Church of the Advent in Boston. His beneficence was great in both public and private ways, and his character made him beloved by all who knew him. On April 9, 1840, he was married to Miss Anne Henrietta Brune, of Baltimore. He died on March 22, 1893, leaving an honored name to his descendants and an honored memory to the community in which he lived for nearly eighty years.

MARTIN BRIMMER INCHES.

MARTIN BRIMMER INCHES was born in Milton, Mass., April 13, 1820, and was a son of Henderson and Susan (Brimmer) Inches. His great-grandfather was Thomas Inches, of Dunkeld, Scotland. Through his mother and grandmother he was descended from Martin Brimmer, born in Osten, near Hamburg, Germany; and also from Andrew Sigourney, of Rochelle, France. He married Miss Mary W. Chester, of Albany, N.Y. He commenced his profession as a civil engineer in Boston about 1845. His election as a member of the Society occurred December, 1892. His death was on April 28, 1893.

EDWARD PAYSON REED.

EDWARD PAYSON REED was born Sept. 21, 1836, at East Abington, Mass., and was a son of Amos Shaw and Rachel (Burgess) Reed. He was a descendant of William Reade, who settled in Weymouth; and also of the Shaw, Hobart, White, Nash, and Thompson families of that locality. Through his mother's family he was descended from General Josiah Whitney, of Revolutionary fame. Mr. Reed resided at North Abington, where he was engaged in the lumber business. He was elected a member of the Society May 10, 1893. He died May 28, 1894.

THEODORE HAROLD CLAPP.

THEODORE HAROLD CLAPP was born in Pittsfield, Mass., Feb. 6, 1857, and was a son of Thadeus and Lucy (Goodrich) Clapp. He was a descendant of Roger Clap, who came to New England 1630, and also descended from the Strong, Lyman, Goodrich, Parsons, and other prominent families of western Massachusetts. He was a member of the Naval Brigade of Massachusetts; appointed boatswain's mate March 25, 1890; ensign, May 4, 1891; lieutenant, Sept. 11, 1892. During its exercise in the summer of 1893 he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, from which he never fully recovered, and which caused his death April 7, 1895, at Hamilton in Bermuda, where he was endeavoring to regain his health. His membership commenced in the New York Society of the Sons of the Revolution, Sept. 28, 1891; and he was a charter member of the Massachusetts Society.
